

Reforms undertaken in past Two years:

The UGC-HRDC has a practice of conducting Core committee meetings before commencement of the approved courses by inviting Subject Experts, Senior Professors, Chairpersons, and Deans etc. to discuss the dimensions and finalize the themes, topics of the courses. The centre also considers participants views and guidance of LPPMC for their valuable suggestions in enhancing the quality of the courses from time to time. The HRDC also incorporates the reforms undertaken by academic bodies, NAAC, Corporate and NGOs in developing specific modules for the benefit of participants. The HRDC has selected renowned institutes to provide an opportunity to visit and interact with scientists, academicians, entrepreneurs, legal experts, corporate giants, industrialists, social activists, journalists, academic administrators to share their experience and knowledge for inducing practical and professional skills.
